Rick Littleton, Senior Vice President of Leasing, has been with Worth & Associates since 1989. With a specialization in marketing, Rick is trained in providing an array of services to clients in the selling, exchanging, leasing, managing, developing, financing and syndication of commercial and investment real estate arenas. Rick's major leases include Time Warner Cable, Goodwill Industries, Biodynamics Research, Sato Travel, KCI, Inc. Univision, Wellmed, and Ernst & Young. Rick began his career in 1975 at Littleton Tire Company, moving on to Kyse & Associates in the late 1980's, where he worked as a broker.

Diligence, perseverance, and consideration of customers' needs validate Rick's success as a leasing agent. Rick served as a chair of the CCIM National Legislative Committee; VP of the Regional Chapter of CCIM and President for the San Antonio, South Texas CCIM Chapter. His professional designations include being one of an elite 3200 worldwide membership with the Society of Industrial and Office Relations (SIOR). He was the 2013 President of SIOR's South Texas San Antonio Chapter. Rick also has a CCIM designation, awarded by the CCIM Institute to the elite of Commercial Real Estate Brokers. Rick Littleton and wife, Dianne are the proud parents of Stacy, Lance, and Blair.
