Sally Flores-Watkins, Assistant Property Manager for Worth & Associates, brings 19 years of experience in the real estate industry, with a background spanning multifamily, single-family and commercial property management, as well as residential real estate. She assists in the management of over 605,000 square feet of office space within the Worth portfolio.

Prior to joining Worth, Sally served as an Assistant Property Manager for a local real estate investor, overseeing commercial studio properties, single-family rental homes and owner-financed properties. She also held Regional Leasing Manager and Property Manager roles in the multifamily industry.

Sally was recognized as a San Antonio Rising Star Real Estate Agent from 2023 through 2025. She also holds an Associate's degree in Communications.

In her spare time, Sally enjoys traveling with her husband, crafting, watching true crime shows and attending sporting events.
